

In Loving Memory of Richard Sytsma

January 28, 1931 – July 9, 2021

All of Richard Sytsma's days were ordained by his Loving and Wise Creator before one of them came to be. In God's perfect time he was born in the Netherlands, on January 28, 1931 to Klaas and Dirkje (nee: Merkus) Sytsma. At the age of 20 years old, Richard immigrated to Canada. He met the love of his life Lina, and they were united in marriage on November 26, 1955, in Toronto, Canada. Richard immigrated to the United States in 1957. He established and owned Bestway Flooring Center in Racine, Wisconsin for 20 years before retiring in 1998.

Richard was a faithful follower and lover of the Lord Jesus Christ. He was a long-time member of Racine Christian Reformed Church, serving as elder and deacon. He helped build Racine Christian School and served on the school board. He also volunteered his time for the American Red Cross and Racine Meals on Wheels Program. He could often be found tending his flower garden in his Dutch shoes (called 'klompen').

Richard was a daredevil kiddo at heart and loved water skiing, snowmobiling and motorcycling. He was a fan of the Bill Gaither Trio and the Green Bay Packers. He was a superb harmonica player. Richard was always joyful and loved his family.

His time of service complete, Richard was called to his heavenly home on July, 9, 2021. He will be missed and his memory will be cherished by his wife of 65 years, Lina and;
